Región del Maule

An aerial photograph of a vast agricultural area. The foreground is dominated by several large, rectangular fields, some of which are planted with crops and show distinct rows, while others are dry or in different stages of cultivation. A single, narrow, paved road cuts through the fields from the bottom left towards the center. In the background, a range of mountains is visible under a clear blue sky with a few wispy clouds.

The background image is an aerial photograph of a vineyard. The fields are arranged in long, narrow, light-green rows. In the center, there is a large, brown, dry, and arid area, possibly a dry riverbed or a different type of land use. A single paved road cuts through this brown area, leading towards the bottom of the frame. In the far distance, a range of mountains is visible under a clear blue sky.

A close-up photograph of a young grapevine sprout growing in a vineyard. The sprout, with its vibrant green leaves and delicate tendrils, stands out against the blurred background of mature vine trunks and foliage. The lighting is warm and directional, highlighting the textures of the vine and the surrounding earth.

2 minutos LOS NICHES

A waterfall cascades down a steep, mossy cliff into a pool of water. The waterfall is the central focus, with water falling in a straight line from the top of the cliff to the bottom. The cliff is covered in lush green moss and ferns, and the water is a light blue color. The background is dark and out of focus.
